MIAMI, FL—Five people were hospitalized with various injuries following a violent South Florida collision involving a small car and a tractor-trailer. According to NBC Miami, the 18-wheeler accident occurred in Miami-Dade County's Westchester neighborhood at approximately 2:30 a.m. on Feb. 17.

Witness reports suggested a Honda Accord and an 18-wheeler were heading west on Coral Way in Southwest Miami-Dade County when the semi attempted to make a left turn at Southwest 84th Avenue. Seemingly unable to swerve away in time, the Honda consequently crashed into the truck. Although the exact cause of the 18-wheeler accident remains unclear, officials said speed played a role in the traffic crash.

According to information provided, hydraulic rescue tools (the Jaws of Life) were used to extract one of the crash victims from the wreckage. The driver of the Honda—23-year-old Miami resident Alexandria Estrella—and four passengers in the car (whom also reside in Miami)—Ana Posada, 18, Moises Arnold Alvarez, 18, Anthony Emmanuel Del Rio, 18, and Jovanni Oliva, 20—were transported to the Trauma Center at Kendall Regional Hospital following the South Florida collision. Estrella and Posada apparently suffered critical injuries in the traffic crash. The driver of the semi truck, on the other hand, escaped serious injury in the Southwest Miami-Dade wreck.

Investigations into the injurious collision are ongoing.
